Clubber TV is excited to announce that we have secured an exclusive media rights deal with Kerry GAA to bring thrilling Kerry Club Championship Matches for the next 3 Seasons.

Clubber TV is excited to announce that we have secured an exclusive groundbreaking media rights deal with Kerry GAA to bring thrilling Kerry Club Championship Matches to Domestic and Global Audience for the next 3 Seasons.

This landmark agreement will showcase the top 60 championship games per year, providing an unmatched viewing experience to fans in Ireland, and worldwide.

As a leading provider of end-to-end live broadcasting solutions, Clubber TV empowers sports organisations, including GAA, to engage their fan base by delivering live games seamlessly and efficiently. Through its cutting-edge technology, fans can access the live broadcasts from the convenience of their Smart TVs, tablets, mobile phones, or laptops.

"We are delighted to partner with Kerry GAA and embark on this remarkable journey of broadcasting the Kerry Club Championship matches for the next three seasons," said Jimmy Doyle, CEO and Founder of Clubber TV. "Our goal is to connect GAA fans around the world and offer them a front-row seat to witness the passion, skill, and drama of Kerry's finest clubs competing for championship glory."

Clubber TV will deliver the captivating action of the Kerry Club Championship to a global audience, transcending geographical boundaries and uniting fans in their love for Gaelic football. From the intense battles on the pitch to the remarkable displays of athleticism, every key moment of the championship will be expertly captured and shared with fans across the globe.

Kerry GAA Chairman, Patrick O'Sullivan said "Kerry GAA are delighted to be entering this new venture with Clubber to ensure that our great calendar of games is accessible to everyone both in the county and living abroad."

Clubber TV's reputation as a trusted broadcast provider has made it a preferred choice for GAA and various sports organisations. Their commitment to delivering high-quality broadcasts and engaging experiences has earned them the trust of fans.

For the next three seasons, fans can rely on Clubber TV to bring them closer to the action, capturing the essence of the Kerry Club Championship and delivering a thrilling spectator experience that truly reflects the passion and intensity of Gaelic football.
